

Maths: Speedy Six

1. How many times is 1083 greater than 1.083?
2. A pack of eight cartons of juice cost £3.75.
Find to the nearest penny the cost of 1 carton.
3. A car travels at a speed of 45 km/h for 1hr.
How far did it travel in 20 minutes?
4. Write in digits to the nearest hundred six thousand four hundred and fifty.
5. A regular hexagon has sides each measuring 58mm. Find its perimeter in centimetres.

Keep practising your times tables.

Reading Comprehension

Please complete the reading comprehension 'Tutankhamun'.

Spellings

| Green | Purple |
|--------------|---------------|
| count | light |
| counting | might |
| dream | night |
| dreaming | right |
| help | slight |
| helped | flight |
| small | bright |
| because | brightly |
| embarrass | brightest |
| harass | brightness |

Optional English Extension
(1 housepoint if completed)

Complete the complex sentences.

7. The old man, who _____, walked to the mirror.
8. Clutching her _____, the lady watched the prowling tiger.
9. The castle, which _____, waited for the travellers on the hill.

Homework is due in on 24th January.